

“We Can’t Give Up, It’s Too Important.” Health and Safety Stories from Canadian and U.S. Schools
By Dorothy Wigmore

NEW SOLUTIONS, Vol. 20(1) 81-93, 2010

<https://journals.sagepub.com/doi/pdf/10.2190/NS.20.1.f>

Also a Chapter in Our Toxic Schoolhouse, Baywood Publishing Co. Inc. <http://baywood.com>

The title “We Can’t Give Up, It’s Too Important.” Is a quote from CASLE’s Karen Robinson (p 93 New Solutions)

The screenshot shows a web browser window displaying the article page for "We Can't Give Up, It's Too Important." Health and Safety Stories from Canadian and U.S. Schools by Dorothy Wigmore. The page is from the journal "NEW SOLUTIONS: A Journal of Environmental and Occupational Health Policy". The article was first published on April 1, 2010. The abstract discusses the hazards in schools and the role of school-based organizations and unions. The page also features an article menu with options like "Access Options", "Article Metrics", "Cite", "Share", "Request Permissions", and "Related Articles". On the right side, there are sections for "Article available in:" (Vol 20, Issue 1, 2010) and "Related Articles" with links to similar articles like "Occupational Health Profile of Brazilian Immigrant Housecleaners in Massachusetts" and "Hazard Information for Employees: A Neglected Ethical Issue in British Occupational Medicine". The browser's address bar shows the URL <https://journals.sagepub.com/doi/pdf/10.2190/NS.20.1.f>. The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the time as 8:33 PM on 2021-03-07.